CHILDREN ARE BEING EXPLOITED BY GANGS INVOLVED IN DRUG CRIME. Know the signs to spot.

County lines gangs use children and vulnerable people to courier drugs and money. A young person who is involved in county lines activity might exhibit some of these signs:

Persistently going missing from school or home, or being found out-of-area	Unexplained acquisition of money, clothes or mobile phones	Excessive receipt of texts or phone calls	Relationships with controlling, older individuals or gang association	Leaving home or care without explanation
Suspicion of self- harm, physical assault or unexplained injuries	Parental concerns	Significant decline in school performance	Significant changes in emotional well- being

If you have concerns, follow your safeguarding procedures and share your concerns with local authority social care services.
